Dear Mr. Sanzone:

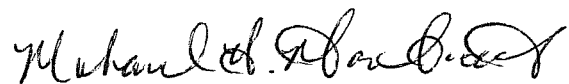

My family and I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all of your hard work, advice and guidance. My family and I had been searching for a very good attorney for a while. We were not happy with my previous attorney that was handling my case for approximately 11 months. Then at the last minute, while searching the internet for best attorneys, I found your site. We were very happy with what we saw and read that we had decided to come in for a consultation. From the first moment my family and I met you, we knew you were a very special person and that you were the attorney we had been searching for. You listened to everything that I said, asked questions to better understand the situation and discussed the case. Even though I only had one month for my trial, you were kind enough to represent me.

With only a few weeks to prepare, you worked diligently and helped ease our burden. You heard all of our concerns and felt our sense of despair. This meant so much to me and my family. Just to know that you understand and care made my whole ordeal a little more bearable. I knew that as we were heading to trial, we were giving it everything that we've got. This gave me and my family a tremendous sense of peace.

Ultimately, just days before the trial was about to start, the case was miraculously resolved in a manner that we could not have imagined. Thank you for your diligence, persistence, hard work and kindness. Thank you for representing me and defending my rights. You have truly been sent by the Lord to guide me in my time of need.

My family and I wish you and your family all the best.

Sincerely yours,
