Suit Accuses Troopers Of Beating Driver

Posted by IHP on Thursday, March 10th, 2005 at 16:09 (Views: 140)

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) Both sides in a federal lawsuit charging three troopers with kicking and punching a handcuffed man are likely to turn to a state police video of the traffic stop in hopes of proving their case.

In a federal lawsuit, Aundrey Green contends the troopers violated his civil rights by using excessive force following a traffic stop in 2002. The troopers—Craig Brown, Frederick Fife and Robert Parry—claim Green, 32, assaulted them. The troopers say they clocked Green speeding at 105 mph before pulling him over on a Cumberland County highway. He served 11 months in state prison after pleading guilty to assaulting the troopers, but his lawyer says the plea deal was the result of bad legal advice from a public defender.

The lawsuit, filed in U.S. District Court in Camden in January, contends that the tape, which is several minutes long and documents Green's arrest, provides evidence of police brutality, said civil rights lawyer Vincent Sanzone Jr. The tape, which contains an audio component, shows a wide-angle view, and is lit only by headlights.

The Attorney General's office, which represents the troopers, and state police said they have a policy against commenting on pending litigation.
